CASE NUMBER: 4:10CR40041-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

If BOP does not place the defendant in a half-way house, the court ORDERS that Probation place the defendant in a half-way house for the first six months of supervision or as directed by probation.

X The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall pay the fine in installments of $15.00 or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision until paid in full.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

X Due to the defendant's substance abuse history, he shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/ or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale approved by the United States Probation Office. Copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling. The number of tests shall not exceed 52 in a one year period.

X Because of this defendant's risk of recidivism, the defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officers at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

X As the Court has reason to believe that the defendant is in need of mental health treatment, the defendant shall undergo a mental health assessment and participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This may include a psychiatric evaluation and may require participation in a medication regimen. The defendant shall follow the medication regimen as prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered for counseling and/or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale, as directed and approved by the United States Probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.
